

Contents

Introduction	1
How to Get The Most Out of This Book	9
Chapter 1
An Overview of Issues and Options to Help Your Parent Live Independently Longer	13
The first steps to helping your parent age at home	20
Get a home assessment to make sure her home is safe	20
Monitor your parent’s status regularly	23
Helpful advice on how to prevent falls	24
Tried and true versus new high-tech devices	27
How to talk about driving	28
Chapter 2
A Comprehensive Approach Including New Technologies	35
Staying healthy and fit are key to maintaining independence	35
We are what we eat	36
The multiple benefits of exercise	38
Exercises that may help reduce the incidence of falls	42
The benefits of meditation	50
Laughter is free medicine	52
Herbs and supplements — something to think about	53
21st century technologies provide a paradigm shift and offer more choices and cost savings	56
“Big Brother” at his best — passive monitoring devices can give you and your parent peace of mind	57
The LifeShirt® system may identify falls	60
Wireless remote bed alarm helps seniors needing assistance at night	61
Electronic pillbox enhances compliance	62

Robots: they may not be warm and fuzzy, but they are the way of the future	64
In-home caregivers — the mainstay in assisting seniors to age in place	71
Ask questions before you sign on the dotted line	72
How to find the right in-home caregiver	76
Other in-home options for a parent needing 24/7 care	79
Novel community-based alternatives provide comfort at home and in home-like environments	81
For independent seniors, the Beacon Hill Village model and other community-based programs are popping up in the suburbs	81
The group home concept is being revisited	85
The Green House	86
Granny flats/elder cottages — getting your parent to move “next door”	87
Medicare and Medicaid support alternatives to nursing home care	89
How to pay for their care	91
Chapter 3
Managing My Mother’s Care: Practical Tips	93
In-home care: CNA services from agency number 1 — the good, the bad and the ugly	101
The importance of consistency	102
How do agency owners treat their staff?	104
Be clear as to what CNAs can and cannot do	105
Hospice care versus palliative care	107
Rehab — what to look for when selecting a facility	109
The shortage of CNAs is ubiquitous	112
What to do if the rehab facility you have chosen does not work out	114
Understanding medications	114
Keeping track of your parent’s medications is critical	116
When things go terribly wrong	118

CONTENTS

How CNA services can and should be delivered: Doing it the right way with agency number 2	123
Communication is key	123
Sometimes it is the little things that count	129
Chapter 4
What I Learned: Specific Suggestions	131
To move or not to move — moving closer to an adult child or staying at home with what is familiar	131
The downside to aging at home	132
Become familiar with your parent’s community	132
Lists with phone numbers will save you time and headaches down the road	135
How to manage your parent’s money for everyday expenses	135
An overview of various legal documents	140
Advance health care directives and living wills	142
Durable power of attorney	144
DNR	145
Learn as much as you can about your parent’s medical needs	146
Drug interactions	148
Compliance	148
Coordination between the in-home health care agency and hospice — make sure the roles are delineated	151
Your role as parent care coordinator (PCC)	153
The importance of extra pairs of eyes and ears, particularly if you live far away	156
The following provides a snapshot of what a geriatric care manager can provide	159
Talking about death is not taboo	161
Coming to terms with your fears — and helping your parent come to terms with hers	163
Preparing for the inevitable	171
Ethics 101	175

Chapter 5
Guidelines and Questions to Ask Home Health Care Agencies, Rehab Facilities, and Hospice	181
How to select a home health care agency	181
How to select and deal with a rehab facility	186
How to select hospice	196
Appendix A	205
Questionnaire for Screening Home Health Care Agencies	205
Questionnaire for Screening Rehab Facilities	209
Questionnaire for Screening Hospice	214
Appendix B	217
Sample Morning Schedule	218
Sample Evening Schedule	219
Sample Night Schedule	220
Sample Information Management Sheet	221
Sample Medical Appointments Log	223
Sample Prescription Medications Log	224
Appendix C
Annotated List of Web Sites	227
Appendix D
Recommended Reading	251
References	255
Registered Trademarks	257
Index	261